Trainers Toolkit

“Having a toolkit of activities and resources to facilitate learning takes training to a whole new level; A trainer who can help people see how their behaviours can change, both for their own benefit and the organisations goals will be successful” – Peter Smith

Program Overview

This program is focused on understanding facilitation and training, meeting your participant’s needs as a trainer/facilitator and gaining strategies to confidently effect an engaging delivery. This course aims to build a participants toolkit with the skills and knowledge required for impeccable training and facilitation.

Key Benefits

Participants will be able to:

- Understand Adult Learning Principles
- Build a platform of best training practice
- Gain flexible training delivery tools
- Review and rework a training session
- Develop skills to handle difficult participants
- Learn engaging techniques to deliver content
- Enhance facilitation skills

Who Should Attend?

Anyone responsible design and delivery of training

Key Competencies

- Knowledge and understanding of each stage in the 4-mat training cycle
- Ability to design training ‘on the run’
- Define the participant learning styles and training delivery to match
- Use Neuro-Linguistic Programming techniques to pace and lead a training toward the desired outcomes
- Decide which approach to take with difficult participants
- Conduct skilful discussions

Duration

Minimum

Pricing

Facilitated by

1 day

We reserve the right to reschedule this course if minimum numbers of 8 are not achieved to ensure maximum participation. Guaranteed confirmation will be given seven days out from this event.

$425.00 per/person

Peter Smith

Central College Corporate
RTO Provider Number: 91282
ABN: 36 122 507 108
A Member of GCA Group of Companies